Manulife joins 2023 MassKara Festival, strengthens business in the City of Smiles

The leading global life insurer inducts new agency leaders, expands recruitment efforts, and highlights innovative insurance solutions in Bacolod

Manila, Philippines — The local arm of leading financial services provider Manulife recently sponsored major festivities at the 2023 MassKara Festival in Bacolod, one of the country’s biggest festivals every year. Highlighting the Company’s various life, health, investment and retirement offerings and expanding its recruitment campaign to the City of Smiles, Manulife reinforces its commitment to the province of Negros Occidental and demonstrates its strong position to financially secure more Filipinos across the country.

Manulife also hosted career orientation programs for Bacolod locals looking for new job or income opportunities, aiming to encourage festival attendees to start a meaningful and thriving career journey with Manulife, and help make insurance more accessible to Filipinos.

“Our presence in Bacolod as part of the MassKara Festival 2023 is part of our unwavering dedication to serve more Filipinos in the Visayas and beyond, and promote the importance of insurance as a way for customers to achieve their goals, prepare for uncertainty, ensure protection for themselves and their loved ones, and reach their financial aspirations,” said Rahul Hora, President and Chief Executive Officer, Manulife Philippines.

“As the MassKara Festival celebrates and underscores a colorful and vibrant culture brimming with courage, hope and resilience, we at Manulife aim to empower more Filipinos to take charge of their health and finances so they can live confidently and make every day better,” he added.
