Manulife Philippines Appoints Victor Tanjuakio as New Chief Corporate Solutions and Alternative Distribution Officer

MANILA, Philippines – The Philippine arm of leading global financial services provider Manulife announces the appointment of Victor Tanjuakio as the Company’s new Chief Corporate Solutions and Alternative Distribution Officer.

Tanjuakio joins Manulife Philippines with over 35 years of experience working with some of the country’s leading insurance organizations. As Chief Corporate Solutions and Alternative Distribution Officer, Tanjuakio will be responsible for driving high-quality sustainable growth for Manulife Philippines’ corporate solutions business.

“Victor has delivered remarkable results for top financial services companies in the Philippines throughout his career, and we’re delighted to bring his expertise to our senior leadership team. He’s a veteran actuary skilled in financial reporting, underwriting, risk management, marketing, sales, and talent development,” said Rahul Hora, President and Chief Executive Officer, Manulife Philippines.

Hora added, “With Victor at the helm of our corporate solutions business, we look forward to providing our group insurance clientele with more innovative financial solutions tailor-fit to their organizations’ and their employees’ unique protection needs.”

Tanjuakio will oversee a team in charge of multi-channel sales, group pricing, group accounts management, group operations, and digital transformation to develop and execute strategies that enhance Manulife Philippines’ customer and distributor experience for stable of corporate clients. Under his leadership, the team will be tasked to further drive business growth through strategic partnerships with other financial institutions as well as traditional and emerging digital players.
